

COMPENDIUM OF CURRICULA

NATIONAL RESPONSIBLE
FATHERHOOD CLEARINGHOUSE

ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

If you have a curriculum you would like to submit for inclusion, please contact
fatherhood.gov

This publication serves as a resource for program operators seeking information on available curricula designed for working with fathers in the United States of America.

While not a comprehensive list, it provides an overview of curricula used by programs funded by the Office of Family Assistance within the Administration for Children and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

For easy reference, the compendium is organized in alphabetical order as well as by topic and target audience.

This publication is intended for informational purposes only. Additional details can be obtained through the contact information provided with each entry.

This is the second edition compiled for the National Responsible Fatherhood Clearinghouse (NRFC) under a contract with the United States Department of Health and Human Services/Administration for Children and Families/Office of Family Assistance. The first edition was published in 2011.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT CURRICULUM

A man with short dark hair and a light beard is shown from the waist up. He is wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt and dark jeans. His hands are clasped together in front of his face, with his fingers pointing upwards. He has a thoughtful or perhaps surprised expression on his face. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

As a program operator, searching for a curriculum that meets the needs of your community requires careful consideration of several factors:

ALIGNMENT WITH PROGRAM GOALS

Ensure the curriculum's focus area and intended outcomes align with your program's objectives.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Consider whether the curriculum is designed for the population you serve, including age, background, and learning needs.

DELIVERY MODE

Determine if the curriculum's format (techniques, settings, approach) fits your program's structure and resources.

TIME COMMITMENT

Assess the length and intensity of the curriculum to ensure it fits within your program schedule.

EVIDENCE AND EFFECTIVENESS

Review any available research or feedback on the curriculum's impact to ensure it meets your quality standards.

By carefully evaluating these factors, you can choose a curriculum for your organization that best supports your program's success.

CURRICULA BY PROGRAM GOAL

The following three sections are organized according to three program goals as defined by the Healthy Marriage and Responsible Fatherhood (HMRF) program, which is funded by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and aims to promote family well-being through three core goals:

- 1 Fostering ECONOMIC STABILITY by supporting employment and financial literacy.
- 2 Enhancing PARENTING SKILLS to improve child outcomes and family functioning.
- 3 Strengthening HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS, including marriage and co-parenting, to build supportive family environments.
